

Agility,
Resilience and Transformation
in Curriculum Design

DECART project is an international cooperation partnership, incl. France, Germany, Iceland, Indonesia, Lithuania, and South Africa.

The goal is to allow partner's organisations:

- to increase the quality and relevance of their curriculum design activities,
- to enhance their capacity to operate jointly at transnational level,
- to boost internationalisation of their pedagogical activities,
- to exchange and develop curriculum practices and methods, in STEM and Management higher education
- to share and confront ideas in curriculum design, with a focus on resilience and transformation.
